OUR PROFILE

“An excellent law firm”

“[E]xcellent service”

“[f]riendly and always helpful”

“[O]ne of the best out there”

About Us

We are a corps dedicated to addressing demanding clients' important legal challenges.

More broadly, we are a leading Nigerian business law firm founded nearly 30 years ago. We have always had an international outlook. If we may say so, we have a reputation for, and an outstanding record of, carrying out critical, innovative and complex work to the highest standards. We have advised on many significant developments in Nigerian business law.

Our practice areas are: mergers, acquisitions, strategic investments, re-organizations, foreign investment, compliance (including environmental, social and governance matters), lendings, derivatives, insolvency, capital markets, litigation, arbitration, "white collar" defence and investigations, tax, intellectual property, competition, data protection and employment law.

Our clients work in many industry sectors: agribusiness, commercial banking, Fintech, investment banking, insurance, private equity, pensions, fund managers, oil and gas, electric power, mining, real estate, construction, infrastructure, healthcare, transport, services, retail and distributorship, commodities, materials, manufacturing (capital goods, consumer goods), trade, technology, telecommunications, media and entertainment.

Our clients are of many nationalities and every size. They range from foremost global multinational enterprises to ambitious, home-grown fledglings. We also serve governments and government-controlled enterprises (we have advised on numerous privatizations) as well as private wealth clients.

We have and maintain complementary contacts in Nigerian business and government circles, and with law firms and lawyers' organizations in and outside Nigeria. We are a member of Multilaw, a leading global alliance of independent law firms. Multilaw has offices in 100 countries and over 11,000 lawyers.

"[A] respected firm sought after by domestic and international clients alike for the breadth and depth of its commercial and corporate knowledge".

"the preferred choice of several international firms".

SOME HIGHLIGHTS

We regularly advise and represent clients on several of the most sensitive, large, complex, novel, and critical matters in our market. Some highlights of our record include:

*“Leading Nigerian firm
G. Elias & Co., an excellent, very pragmatic and solution-oriented firm”*

- The merger of the Sokoto Cement Company plc and the Kalambaina Cement company (the merged entity had a “market cap” just short of USD3bn)
- The acquisition of Union Bank of Nigeria Plc (Nigeria’s second oldest bank) by Titan Trust Bank Ltd
- Crude oil forward sale financings for an aggregate total of over USD3bn for Shell, Chevron, and Total petroleum entities
- Pioneering Investment treaty and commercial arbitrations for over USD2bn in aggregate value against Nigerian Federal governmental defendants
- The concessions and other documentation for the nation’s busiest “metro” rail system (estimated cost circa USD2bn)
- Over USD3bn worth of currency swaps and securities lending deals for leading global North American and Asian financial institutions
- The largest insolvencies, with an aggregate value of nearly USD3bn, in the Nigerian aviation (on the creditor side), telecommunications (mainly on the debtor side), and oil-and-gas (for the creditor) sectors
- The development of iconic malls and luxury residential properties in Lagos
- Initial public offerings for leading telecommunications and technology sector operators
- The then largest loans ever from a multilateral lender to a Nigerian bank (USD1.75bn in aggregate from the African Export-Import Bank to the Bank of Industry)
- Advice to supranational sponsors on a series of water infrastructure and world-class hospitals developments in several states

- A pioneering USD742mm transaction to exchange NNPC-First E&P crude oil for Schlumberger Group oilfield services
- The sale for USD800mm to a Kellogg entity of a controlling stake in a Nigeria's largest food products manufacturing and logistics business (Tolaram (Indomie Noodles))
- The acquisition by a leading global Chinese investor of a controlling stake in Nigeria's pioneering, USD1.5bn, deep-sea port developer
- The defence of a leading global manufacturer of consumer products in a series of product liability claims for an aggregate total of over USD25billion
- A large pioneering bond offering programme for the equivalent of over USD1bn by the Nigerian Mortgage Refinance Company, a government-backed secondary mortgage financier
- A thermal 950MW IPP in Northern Nigeria for the BUA Group-Siemens consortium
- Advice to a global multinational oil company on the disposal of a large portfolio of onshore upstream assets
- A large gas sales agreement to an independent power project owner (by Seplat Plc to the Azura IPP project)
- The over ₦1bn rehabilitation of NNPC depots, pipelines and other downstream facilities by a consortium of Nigerian and international investors and contractors
- The defence of a global consumer brand owner against the competition law regulator in long-running administrative proceedings
- An impact investment fund sponsored by a leading energy sector multinational on what has become by far the nation's most extensive programme of renewables sector investments (over 35 thus far, and counting)
- Advice to the Lagos State Government on the largest bond offering programme (USD1.1bn equivalent in general, "Sukuk" and "Green" bonds) in Nigerian history

OUR AGENDA

“Excellent”

Our Culture

We espouse the values, priorities, and psychology of a traditional professional services partnership. We use and celebrate the organizational resources and methods -- not least significant investment in specialist professionals and advanced technology -- that every ambitious modern institution should rely on.

"[H]ighly principled, disciplined"

Our paramount aim is always to give our clients service of the very highest quality. That means that we emphasise technical proficiency, speed of response, attention to detail, and creativity in developing practical solutions to clients' challenges.

We especially value teamwork, responsiveness, imagination and technical rigour. We aim always to exceed our clients' expectations and to improve continuously in every aspect of what we do. It goes without saying that we work to the very highest ethical standards.

"Very good work ethic"

We are deeply passionate about being the most proficient lawyers that we can be, about acquiring even more proficiency with every passing year, and about ensuring that each of our associates gets a superlative professional developmental experience with us.

"The quality of legal services is very outstanding"

We set high bars for ourselves and insist on raising those bars continually. We always insist on ability, commitment, and decency. Beyond these, we seek and encourage diversity in background and gender among our lawyers on the view that such diversity can only enrich our insights, outlook, experience, and capacity for empathy with our clients.

Our Mission

The agenda was and is to be an unusually closely-knit team of versatile experts doing the most challenging legal work of ambitious business clients in every sector, with passion and intensity, and to the highest standards.

“The firm has always been professional in its delivery of legal service”.

We are an orthodox professional partnership, slow to engage in lateral hiring and to depart from its “lockstep” system of recognizing our partners. Each of our partners is, and has always been, both a general partner and an equity partner.

We aim to do the most critical, complex, and innovative work of serious business clients, whether the clients are young or old, Nigerian or international, famous or self-effacing, big or small. We are certified by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO).

“[V]ery business-minded and creative”

We do not seek to be the largest law firm by headcount, and we do not necessarily prefer large clients to small ones. Our focus is on having clients who will challenge us and lawyers who in number and skill are able to discharge with excellence the consequential and challenging tasks that we take on.

Our Clients

We are known for our sensitivity to clients' business needs and concerns, and promptness in responding to and executing their requests in dealing with business law assignments of every consequence, complexity, magnitude and novelty.

*"[T]op-notch
response times
and the ability to deliver desired results"*

Every assignment that we take on is overseen by a partner who is responsible for the quality of the service that we render and liaising regularly with the client on the progress of the work.

We strive to develop our associates such that each of them will become both a general strategic counsellor and a specialized expert in one or more of the areas that we work in.

"Very dynamic, practical and solution driven"

We realize that for most clients, it is attractive, as much as possible, to have a single lawyer who will both master the business background to the full range of the client's work and plans and have the technical competence to advise on more than one of the practice areas that are relevant to the client.

"Great response time"

We, therefore, insist that each of our more experienced associates must have more than one field of technical expertise and not many clients to look after. In this way, we remain versatile without loss of depth or expertise.

"[E]fficient, knowledgeable and responsive"

It is also important to us that we should not cause our clients unwelcome surprises. Every client should be carried along at every stage of their work, and agreements on fees and expenses with clients should be fully respected.

Our Associates: Training

We encourage, but do not require, every associate to have expertise in more than one practice area and sector to the extent that the individual can do so without impairing the level of his or her proficiency. Versatility is more than welcome as long as standards of excellence are maintained.

A programme of training courses has been developed for all our lawyers. A wide range of the courses are on areas that are at the core of our work and are conducted in-house by our own lawyers.

Our lawyers also attend both publicly-available and bespoke courses led by professional instructors from outside the firm both in Nigeria and abroad on other legal subjects and on non-law subjects such as basic accounting and investment banking.

Our Associates: Careers

Our strategy is to grow only as quickly as we can and to develop exceptionally-able lawyers who have the experience and temperament to be general partners to serve our clients well and lead our growth.

“[P]raised for the strength of [its] lawyers”.

We are also very much an independent business law practice led by a partnership into which associates who have served an “apprenticeship” with the practice may be admitted.

“Very clear”

The bases for admission to the partnership are lawyerly ability and seniority rather than cash purchases of partnership shares or short-term ‘rain-making’ prowess.

From inception, we have been committed to searching for and hiring talented and motivated young lawyers, and to training and promoting them through the ranks to become proficient, versatile and business-minded legal practitioners.

From the start, each of our associates works regularly with a partner and gets frequent contact with clients. These features of our practice enable our associates to develop a capacity for responsibility far more quickly than would otherwise be possible.

Our Work: Practices

Arbitration ADR

We handle arbitration matters, whether in Nigeria or abroad, whether between commercial adversaries or by investors against states. We also do court proceedings relating to arbitration, including court applications to uphold arbitration agreements or to set awards aside. Most of our arbitration matters have an international dimension. We also handle mediations, adjudications and expert determinations.

"[T]op notch"

"[E]xcellent service"

We have worked as lead counsel, as co-counsel in support of foreign law firms, as arbitrators, as expert witnesses and as registrars to arbitrators. In arbitration and mediation, our approach is the same approach that we take with litigation: speed, thoroughness, imagination, clarity from the start as to goals and strategy, and realism.

"[V]ery impressed with them, they've delivered exactly what they promised and the legal writing is all very high-quality. It's been a very positive experience"

Our most significant work here has included advising and representing clients in the following areas:

- foreign investors in an investment treaty arbitration
- private equity firms in London-seated arbitration against their financial services sector investees
- Paris-seated arbitration against the Federal Government re-awarding a USD6bn power sector project
- banks in mediating claims filed against them by large creditor customers
- an international logistics company in arbitration claims filed by it against a pan-African business group
- a tanker charterer recovering from a sub-charterer over USD300mm in damages for breach in an arbitration
- a leading "GSM" telephone operator in more than one discrete arbitration filed against it by its suppliers
- an arbitration dispute among the shareholders of a large telecommunications operator
- a foreign "IT" contractor in an adjudication
- an LSE-listed energy company in a quest for expert determination

Capital Markets

We have an outstanding record of capital markets work. Among other exploits, we have advised on Nigeria's largest "IPO", its largest debt offering, its first US Dollar Eurobond, its first offering to be listed simultaneously on stock exchanges in three countries, and its first Islamic finance unit trust.

"[I]ts strongest areas are banking, capital markets and M&A"

We have been advising on:

- initial public offerings
- corporate bonds
- government bonds
- Eurobonds
- convertibles offerings
- equity offers for sale
- rights offerings
- fund formations and offerings
- listings (on national and international stock exchanges)
- prime brokerage and custody arrangements
- global depositary receipts
- demutualization of stock exchanges
- securitizations
- establishing and developing trading platforms
- privatization offerings
- commercial paper offerings
- block trades (single tranche and multi-tranche)

"The firm demonstrated technical understanding and were solutions focused. They were also professional, providing effective communication and adequate speed with reasonable pricing."

Competition

We have a growing practice advising on Nigeria's new competition law statute and regulations, especially on transactions and other arrangements relating to subjects such as:

- merger control
- exclusive dealing arrangements
- price maintenance
- boycotts
- market division
- market dominance
- "gun-jumping"
- negative clearance
- applications for waivers and exemptions
- investigations and inquiries

Compliance

The law and practice relating to compliance increases in importance every day. We have significant experience in areas such as:

- environmental compliance
- social compliance
- governance compliance
- data protection and privacy
- compliance with regulations on “Persons with Significant Control” (PSCs)
- compliance with regulations and policies relating to “Politically-Exposed Persons” (PEPs)
- anti-bribery and corruption compliance
- anti-terrorism regulation
- anti-money laundering regulation
- health and safety regulation
- investigations and audits
- legal aspects of reputational crisis management
- politically-exposed person issues

Corporate

We have extensive experience in corporate work that is, strictly speaking, not mergers and acquisitions work because it involves no substantive change of control over a business. We mean here work relating to:

- spin-offs, split-offs and other de-mergers and divestitures
- foreign direct investment
- setting up in businesses
- strategic minority investments
- privatizations
- reconstructions
- re-organizations to develop group holding company structures
- corporate governance
- compliance
- solvent liquidations

Data Protection

Data protection has become a major and growing area of practice in the past several years. We have advised on:

- the development of company policy and process documents
- the development of contract clauses
- regulatory filings
- privacy regulations and policies
- applications for permits and exemptions
- advisory work
- “due diligence” work
- audits
- addressing the outcomes of data breaches

Derivatives

We were the first Nigerian law firm to join the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) and have been at the forefront of adapting international standard form documentation on derivatives and “repos” to Nigerian law and practice. We advise on exchange-traded and complex OTC derivative deals, and routinely provide capacity and authority, collateral enforceability and netting opinions to our clients using ISDA forms.

Our derivatives lawyers regularly advise leading global and pan-African banks, non-bank corporates, broker-dealers, and multilateral financial institutions on: derivatives transactions involving currencies, interest rates, credit, and commodities, documented using ISDA and other standard form documentation structured as:

- securities repurchases
- commodity, currency and interest rate swaps, options, futures and forwards
- securities lendings
- the establishment of trading platforms
- the development and refinement of rules for the operations of trading platforms

“[H]as some of the best minds in the legal profession in Nigeria and Africa”

Fred Onuobia is “one of the leading experts”

Employment

The matters on which we work regularly include the following:

- executive employment agreements
- secondment (and intragroup “shared services”) arrangements
- developing and refining staff handbooks
- director engagement agreements
- “whistleblowing”
- liability insurance
- employee incentive schemes
- pension scheme structures, documentation and regulation
- expatriate employee remuneration remittances and taxes
- immigration regulation
- drafting, enforcing and resisting “non-compete” clauses
- litigation and arbitration

Environmental

Our team in this area of practice has advised on environmental law issues in respect of transactions, operations, filings, compliance and disputes in sectors such as:

- oil-and-gas
- manufacturing
- agribusiness and forestry
- mining
- maritime transport

Foreign Investment

We advise foreign investors of every size and in every industry on:

- incorporation and other organizations of vehicles
- restrictions on ownership and control
- applications for exemptions from restrictions
- structuring for corporate, tax and regulatory ends

"The firm did exemplary work."

"[C]ontributed a lot to the world of finance"

"An excellent law firm. [The] quality of the work is very good. They are quick and the work is always spot-on"

"[O]utstanding"

"[I]mpressive"

"[I]nnovative and think outside the box"

Intellectual Property

Our intellectual property (“IP”) practice is perhaps our most international and pan-African practice. We are recognized intellectual property experts and we work frequently to protect intellectual property rights in multiple jurisdictions where intellectual property rights are key, and on:

“[B]alance business issues alongside legal implications”

- the filing, registration and renewals of trademarks, patents, designs, copyright and domain names
- IP portfolio management
- searching and clearance
- privacy
- counterfeiting
- disputes and enforcement, both in the courts and administrationaly
- commercialization of IP rights (including franchising and other licensing)
- “due diligence” and IP audits
- drafting and negotiating of IP agreements
- currency remittances to foreign licensors

Insolvency

We have been advising on several of the largest, most complex and newsworthy insolvencies in Nigeria, especially in the aviation, banking, upstream oil-and-gas, power, insurance, real-estate, and telecommunications sectors. We have worked extensively with both borrowers and lenders and the Asset Management Corporation of Nigeria, a statutory entity for the management and resolution of distressed bank financial assets. Our experience extends to:

- the refinancing of debts
- the restructuring of equity
- reorganizations of debtor entities and groups
- sales, leases and other monetizing disposals of assets
- workouts
- concessions
- receiverships
- administration and business rescue
- administrative hearings
- insolvent liquidations
- controversial court proceedings

“Their turn-around time is particularly impressive. Industry knowledge and international network are also major plusses”

Investigations and Administrative Hearings

We have advised and provided representation on:

- “due diligence” inquiries into the records of prospective directors and executives
- defence representation in proceeding before supranational sanctions tribunals
- defence representation in Nigerian proceedings before agencies and agency tribunals
- representation in proceedings before committees of legislatures
- representation in negotiations with, and investigations by, law enforcement officers

Lendings

We have been advising on many of Nigeria's largest, most complex and most creative banking transactions for more than two decades. We work regularly with leading banks (global, pan-African and Nigerian) on their most significant transactions in our market. We also advise borrowers, multilateral and hybrid lenders, development finance institutions and other public and private lenders on their most significant banking transactions.

We have advised extensively on:

- syndicated lendings
- Tier 2 capital loans
- participations, assignments and other "sell down" transactions
- project financings
- trade finance
- exchange control regulation
- acquisition financings
- structured and leveraged lending

- sector-support credit schemes sponsored by governmental institutions

"[P]rovides incisive advice on issues material to the deal"

"The firm's positive attributes were a depth of knowledge and experience, speedy delivery of work with an attention to detail but also dexterity in tasks, great professionalism, a good technological infrastructure, and a customer-centric attitude."

Litigation

We work with speed, precision, thoroughness and imagination, and with clarity as to goals, expectations, strategies and options, from as early in the life of a dispute as possible. We focus on achieving our clients' commercial aims and with an eye on what is realistic and practical. We also audit and manage large portfolios of disputes proceedings.

"[Fred Onuobia] is 'an excellent litigator who keeps his ears to the ground and is always well positioned to advise clients"

We have had notable success in the courts in, for example:

- defending leading multinational organizations in product liability litigation
- securing judicial recognition of the immunity status of multilateral development financial institutions
- representing government agencies in complex litigation involving the recovery of government assets
- resisting attempts to impose huge but illegal fines on multinational organizations
- resisting attempts to impose unconstitutional taxes on business organizations
- registering and enforcing in Nigeria judgments given by foreign courts
- resisting attempts to stop imminent capital markets transactions and critical shareholder meetings
- resisting attempts to stop imminent acquisitions transactions
- representing an inventor in seminal telecommunications software patents validity litigation
- representing employers in class and representative actions filed by employees
- representing financial institutions in suits and counterclaims filed by large bank debtors against banks
- representing the defence in criminal prosecutions on a pro bono basis

"[H]igh quality of their legal opinions and their analysis of legal issues"

Mergers and Acquisitions

The very first instruction that our firm ever handled was for the acquisition of an insurance company. Since then, we have advised sellers and buyers on more than 100 mergers and acquisitions transactions. We continue to advise leading business organizations – global, pan-African and Nigerian, for profit and non-profit trade associations – on consequential, complex and newsworthy mergers and acquisitions in virtually all sectors of the economy.

We have done extensive work in the following areas:

- mergers and amalgamations
- asset sales and acquisitions
- shares sales and acquisitions
- share buy backs
- takeovers
- management and other buy-outs
- corporatizations
- privatizations

"The firm has always been professional in its delivery of legal service"

"The firm does extremely well across all sectors and has many positive attributes."

"G. Elias advises on innovative M&A, capital reorganisations, spin-offs, liquidations and share capital reductions"

Tax

Three of our partners are Fellows of the Chartered Institute of Taxation. Our team has represented leading global clients in seminal tax litigation and advised on the tax dimension to numerous transformative corporate and financial transactions and commercial arrangements. We advise on every variety of tax: federal (chiefly income, capital gains, import duty, value-added tax and stamp duty), state and local government taxes.

We work closely with tax consultants who may not be lawyers as the occasion may arise. We are also active on aspects of tax that are typically not the focus of tax accountants -- for example, court litigation, advice on the constitutional aspects of taxation, the actual drawing up of agreements to achieve given tax goals and assessing and working around the rules on taxes payable to company and land registries. As lawyers, our communications with our clients enjoy unique legal privileges against disclosure.

Our work extends to:

- constitutional authority to impose, assess and collect taxes
- tax litigation and administrative proceedings
- tax law opinions and advice
- tax investigations and audits
- filing and prosecuting applications for tax exemptions and relief
- tax law reform
- the tax structuring of mergers, acquisitions and other corporate re-organizations
- the taxation of foreign investors and investment
- the tax aspects of perfecting security for debt
- transfer pricing reporting and re-characterization issues
